Welcome In The Name of Jesus!

All guests and members alike are extended a kind and joyous welcome to Trinity Lutheran Church this morning. Our prayer is for you to be greatly blessed by God's Word and that you will want to come again. Please introduce yourself to Trinity members, ask questions and inquire about further information from our deacon, Howard Koth, and Pastor Duer.
Our guest book is in the hallway on the table.
We would appreciate you signing in this morning!
Thank you again for coming.
May your time spent here under the influence of God's Word be beneficial to you!

Our Purpose

We are called to effectively and faithfully proclaim the Word of God so that our neighbors in Beloit and the Stateline community will:
Believe in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior,
Confess the Orthodox Faith of His Church,
Commit to the weekly use of the Lord's Supper,
Serve Him in His Kingdom.
We are an evangelical and confessional Church that believes that the Holy Scriptures are the inspired Word of God and the Book of Concord is in accord with the Word of God.
Pastor Duer is available for private Confession and Absolution.

Join Us For Fellowship Today

As we start the month of Thanksgiving, let us follow the example in Acts 2: 46:
And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and sincere hearts."
Take the time to enjoy the fellowship of the Trinity family this morning and maybe a treat too!

In Our Prayers

- All of our shut-ins.
- For all those affected by severe weather and natural disasters and for those who help them.
- For those who serve our nation, especially Seamen Patrick Daehler (son of Dennis & Deanna Daehler) and Kyle Menike (relative of Debbie Hemerley).
- For the family of Janice Hemerley, who passed away this week.
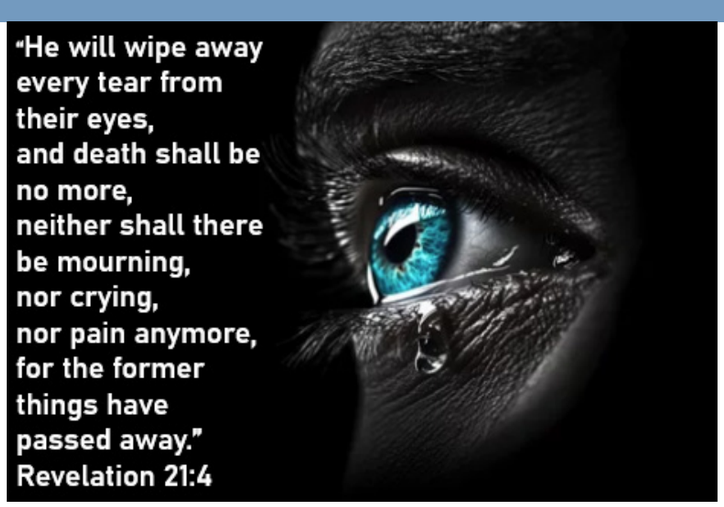
- Bill Hasenberg, recovering from a fall that fractured his pelvis and badly bruised his legs.
- Linda Hasenberg, preparing for upcoming chemotherapy treatments.

LCMS Verse of the Week



"Therefore, encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing. " 1 Thessalonians 5:11

Life Thoughts

From Lutherans for Life.:

November 1st - All Saints Day

Every believer (saint) lives a life of tribulation, being hated by the world and mourning the sin in their own heart and the sins of the world, like abortion, human trafficking and other such evils (Revelation 7:14; 1 John 3:1). Yet, God's children live hopefully, awaiting the day in which He will wipe every tear away from our eyes. When we find ourselves in that great, innumerable multitude, we will rejoice to be freed from all such evil and to greet all the saints washed in Christ's blood, including many of the victims of our culture of death (Revelation 7:9, 14, 17).

Thank You Message

"I asked Sarah to include this brief note in the insert to thank everyone for the cards and expressions of sympathy I received following my recent fall and hospitalization. I deeply appreciate your best wishes for my full recovery, which I am happy to report is well underway. It is indeed gratifying to be part of the wonderful "church family" we have here at Trinity. Thanks again, everyone.

The Passing Of One Of Our Own

It is with sadness in our hearts, yet with the sure and certain hope of the resurrection in our Lord Jesus Christ, that we share the news that Janice Hemerley passed away on Tuesday, October 25th at the age of 87.

"I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live..." (John 11:25-26).

A Christian funeral service to celebrate Janice's life and commend her to our merciful Savior will be held at Daley, Murphy, Wisch & Associates.

Date: Friday, November 6th

Details:
Visitation: 9:00 – 11:00 am.
Funeral Ceremony will begin at 11:00 am.
The Committal will follow at Floral Lawn Cemetery.

Pastor Duer will be officiating the services. A fellowship luncheon will be held afterwards here at Trinity Lutheran.

We are responsible for hosting the luncheon following Janice's services. We are in need of salads and desserts to serve. We will also need help with set up and clean up.

If you are able to help please notify Sarah in the office or contact Cathy Pieper. It would help greatly if you could commit to helping and let us know specifically what you are able to provide as soon as possible. Thank you in advance!
