A Most Hearty Welcome To Everyone Today!

All guests and members alike are extended a warm and cordial welcome to Trinity Lutheran Church this morning. We are honored that God has led you to worship with us. It is our sincere desire that you know that we want to get to know you and be of any assistance to you that we can. It is our prayer that you will be greatly blessed by God's Word and will want to come again. Please feel free to introduce yourself to fellow worshippers, to ask questions and seek out further information from our deacon, Howard Koth. Thank you again for coming.

When you sign in for attendance in the main hallway, please provide us with your address as well.

✠ Worshipped While Away Notes Welcomed ✠

Now that we are more free to worship, it is helpful to know that you can worship while away from home. It is a help to our spiritual accounting and an encouragement to the rest of the congregation to know and see our worship while away as we make contact with fellow Christians in sometimes far away, or not so far away places. Please continue to make use of our "Worshipped While Away Notes." They are located in the narthex on the "cross" bookshelf.

Life Thoughts Via Lutherans For Life...

April 26 (Easter 4) – The first generation of Christians were “selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need” (Acts 2:45). They did this because they recognized that the Gospel of Jesus grants worth and dignity to every person. This doesn’t mean that each Christian needs to sell all they have. But it does mean that we would “die to sin and live to righteousness” (1 Peter 2:24), loving the poor and needy as well as the unborn, the sick, and the dying.
